

VIGIL MECHANISM POLICY OF INDUS MOTOR COMPANY PRIVATE LIMITED

1. PREFACE:

Accordance with Section 177 (9) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 7 of Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, a private limited company having borrowings from banks and public financial institutions in excess of Rs. 50 crore requires to establish a Vigil Mechanism for the directors and employees to report genuine concerns.

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for all employees of the Company including Directors and Senior Management Executives ("the Code"), which lays down the principles and standards that should govern the actions of the Company and its employees. Any actual or potential violation of the Code, howsoever insignificant or perceived as such, would be a matter of serious concern for the Company. This Vigil Mechanism shall provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of persons who use such mechanism.

The Company proposes to establish a Vigil Mechanism and to formulate a policy for the same.

2. POLICY OBJECTIVES:

- I. The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations. To maintain these standards, the Company encourages its employees who have concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment. A Vigil Mechanism provides a channel to the employees and Directors to report to the management their concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of any law, codes of conduct or policy. The mechanism provides for adequate safeguards against victimization of employees and Directors to avail of the mechanism.
- II. This neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be used as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegation against people in authority and / or colleagues in general.

3. SCOPE OF THE POLICY:

The Policy covers malpractices and events which have taken place /suspected to have taken place, misuse or abuse of authority, fraud or suspected fraud, violation of Company code / rules, manipulation, negligence causing danger to public health and safety, misappropriation of monies, and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected.

4. DEFINITIONS:

- I. “Alleged wrongful conduct” shall mean violation of law, Infringement of Company’s code/rules, misappropriation of monies, actual or suspected fraud, substantial and specific danger to public health safety or abuse of authority.

- IV. On receipt of the protected disclosure the Vigilance and Ethics Officer, shall make a record of the Protected Disclosure and also ascertain from the complainant whether he was the person who made the protected disclosure or not. He shall also carry out initial investigation either himself or by involving any other Officer of the Company or an outside agency and if required, may refer the matter to the Board of the Company for further appropriate investigation and needful action, with necessary record. The record will include:
 - a) Brief facts;
 - b) Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously by anyone, and if so, the outcome thereof;

- c) Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously on the same subject;
- d) Details of actions taken by Vigilance and Ethics Officer for processing the complaint
- e) The recommendations/other action(s).

7. INVESTIGATION:

- I. All Protected Disclosures under this Policy will be recorded and thoroughly investigated. The Vigilance and Ethics Officer may investigate and may at its discretion consider involving any other Officer of the Company and/or an outside agency for the purpose of investigation.
- II. The decision to conduct an investigation is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact finding process.
- III. Subject(s) will normally be informed in writing of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.
- IV. Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the Vigilance and Ethics Officer or any of the Officers appointed by it in this regard.
- V. Subject(s) have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Investigators.
- VI. Subject(s) have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with and witness shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the subject(s).
- VII. Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, subject(s) will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in the investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a subject(s) shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- VIII. Subject(s) have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigations. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.
- IX. The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 days of the receipt of the protected disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Board deems fit.

8. DECISION AND REPORTING:

- I. If an investigation leads the Vigilance and Ethics Officer to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as he may deem fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.
- II. The Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall submit a report on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him/her since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any.
- III. If the report of investigation is not to the satisfaction of the complainant, the complainant has the right to report the event to the appropriate legal or investigating agency.
- IV. A complainant who makes false allegations of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct of the subject to the Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company.

9. PROTECTION:

- I. No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/ her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.

- II. A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Director, who shall investigate in to the same and recommend suitable action to the management.
- III. The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. The identity of the complainant will not be revealed unless he himself has made either his details public or disclosed his identity to any other office or authority. In the event of the identity of the complainant being disclosed, the Vigilance and Ethics Officer is authorized to initiate appropriate action as per extant regulations against the person or agency making such disclosure. The identity of the Whistle Blower, if known, shall remain confidential to those persons directly involved in applying this policy, unless the issue requires investigation by law enforcement agencies, in which case members of the organization are subject to subpoena.
- IV. Provided further that the complainant before making a complaint has reasonable belief that an issue exists and he has acted in good faith and any complaint not made in good faith as assessed as such by the Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall be viewed seriously and the complainant shall be subject to disciplinary action as per the Rules / certified standing orders of the Company. This policy does not protect an employee from an adverse action taken independent of his disclosure of unethical and improper practice etc .unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this policy.

10. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS:

All Protected disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of Investigation relating thereto, shall be retained by the Company for a period of 7(seven) years or such other period as specified by any other law in force, whichever is more.

11. ADMINISTRATION AND REVIEW OF THE POLICY:

The Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall be responsible for the administration, interpretation, application and review of this policy. The Vigilance and Ethics Officer also shall be empowered to bring about necessary changes to this Policy, if required at any stage with the concurrence of the Board.

12. AMENDMENT:

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees and Directors unless the same is notified to them in writing.
